OPENING PRAYER BEFORE CITY COUNCIL MEETING, March 13, 1973.

Almighty, everlasting Father, we give Thee thanks for our heritage- this good land, this sound community, this city of churches, of lovely parks and trees, rich in so many things that tell us constantly of Thee.

We thank Thee for the lives of those, both men and women, of years past who gave of their devotion that it might be so.

We thank Thee also for those who ~~xxx~~ today are giving just as devotedly to build our city of the future.

These are changing times and difficult times in many ways. Often we are confused, bewildered, by change, and so our ways of dealing with change are also confused. We find ourselves sometimes in sharp disagreement over what we must do.

We confess sometimes we must be much too close to our present legislators and leaders. We criticize them much too readily, while perhaps glorifying those of the past.

And these of today are much too close to each other many times, we suspect, feeling the bristling irritations and the abrasiveness of conflicting views, failing to recognize sometimes that they are working for a common purpose and for common goals.

We ask therefore that Thy blessings may be bestowed upon them in such a way that they may begin to see their task here in a new light-- as a sacred task -- one that is done for the good of all their fellowmen and for our city, not merely for selfish interests, but even more ~~than this~~ -- a task that is done for Thee.

Cool their debate, therefore, that it may bring not merely heat, but light. Quiet their tempers that they might not meet in a jangle of discord, but ~~k~~ in a harmony of purpose.

Help us all, Most Merciful Father, those who hold the authority of office, and those of us who merely observe, complain and criticize, that we might find strength and purpose together, looking to eternal truths and to Thy all-embracing Love, that we might~~x~~ plan and build as a unified people, as brothers and sisters ~~xxxx~~ together, children of Thine.

We ask it all in the name of Christ our Savior, whose presence is found not only in our churches, but in our homes, and in our streets, our shops and offices-- and here also, dear God, in the sometimes troubled meetings of City Council. Let Him be found then in all our affairs and most of all, in our hearts. Amen.
